

THESE ARE THE VOYAGES BOOK RESEARCH

Jacobs/Brown Press collection organized by author Marc Cushman

DIRECTORY OF STAR TREK STORIES, SCRIPTS, MEMOS & PRODUCTION REPORTS FROM THE ORIGINAL SERIES.

This may be the ultimate research collection of written materials from the 1960s documenting the history and making of Star Trek: The Original Series. With vintage memos, contracts, various drafts of treatments and scripts, production schedules and reports, and TV ratings acquired over the years from Gene Roddenberry, Robert H. Justman, John D.F. Black, D.C. Fontana, Susan Sackett, Roddenberry Entertainment, UCLA Special Collections Library, A.C. Nielsen, and noted Star Trek collectors and researchers, this collection was instrumental in the writing of the three-book set These Are the Voyages - Star Trek: The Original Series, by Marc Cushman, and published by Jacobs/Brown Press.

This collection is so massive, it has taken over 100 pages to list everything, which is why the three-book These Are the Voyages set contains more than 1,800 pages.

Author Marc Cushman in “The Vault,” researching new three-book set covering Gene Roddenberry and Star Trek in the 1970s (available now).
